CPC Quarterly Changes

The Church Periodical Club is finally joining the Electronic Age. We will publish the CPC Quarterly as an e-newsletter, beginning with the next issue.

There are several reasons for the change:

- ✦ Electronic publications cost less to produce than paper ones.
- ✦ The final version can be loaded to our website and social media without scanning it back in.
- ✦ There are no restrictions on length of the publication or of any one article.
- ✦ Saving trees.

The only requirement from you is an email address so that you will not miss an issue.

Please email our administrator Pam Stewart at mrs.fargosclub@gmail.com from the address where you wish to receive your "Q". Thank you very much.

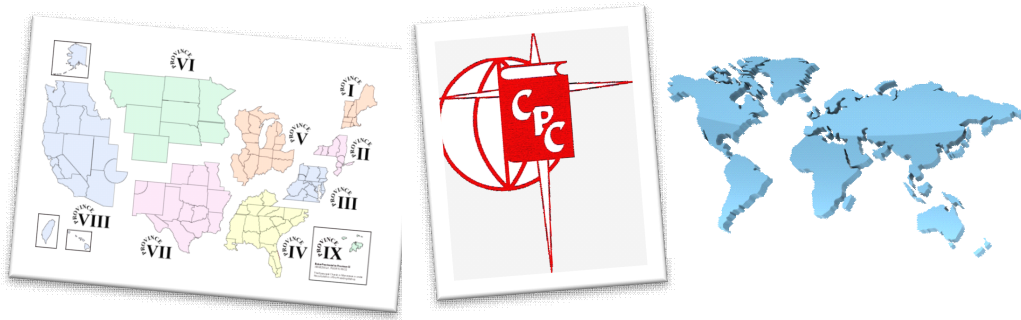

President's Report

The Church Periodical Club had a wonderful Triennial meeting in Austin this year! It was a working meeting, not a formal business meeting or training session. CPC has lain fallow for much of the last year. We are now planting seeds for new growth. We have reorganized our board into teams – administration, media, meetings, national funds, provinces and Triennial 2021. We hope to allocate tasks more evenly and improve our training. We are eager to grow because the need for paper and electronic written materials is so very great.

You can participate:

- ✦ Remain a member of CPC and encourage one or more friends to join. Membership dues cover the administrative costs, free unrestricted gifts for distribution to National Books Fund grants.
- ✦ Sponsor a book or magazine project in your community and apply for a Miles of Pennies grant for its first year; the project may be books for tutors to give to their students at Christmas and the end of the year. It may be books for children to take home from reading camp. It may be magazine subscriptions for children who live in residential facilities.
- ✦ Contribute to the National Book Fund and apply for a grant. A grant may pay for hymnals in nursing homes, professional materials for church workers, a library in your companion diocese, magazines for missionaries.
- ✦ Support CPC projects in your diocese. Many dioceses have seminarian books funds; they were started by CPC and are now administered by ECW or another diocesan organization. Continue your reading project as a diocesan program.
- ✦ Become a Life Member.
- ✦ Encourage others to read and pray for the ministry of the written word around the world and in our communities.

Thank you very much for your continued membership in and support of our shared ministry.

Are You a Member of Church Periodical Club?

If you are a member, have you renewed your annual membership?

The Church Periodical Club is an independent, affiliated organization of the Executive Council of the Episcopal Church, dedicated to the worldwide Ministry of the Written Word and to the Promotion of Christian Mission.

- ✦ Dues are $20 per year
- ✦ Life Member dues are $250, paid at one time or $50/year for five years
- ✦ Parish Life Member dues are $300

Membership dues help fund operating costs. The goal is to have enough members that all unrestricted gifts can be used for book fund grants.

The two Church Periodical Club grant funds are the National Books Fund for adults and Miles of Pennies for Children. For more information, go to www.churchperiodical.com or write to the address below.

Make checks payable to Church Periodical Club and write “Membership” on the memo line. Include the form at the bottom of the page with your check. Mail check and form to CPC Membership, PO Box 1206, Manorville, NY 11949. Be sure to include an email address, if you have one.

Thank you very much for your support of this ministry!
